

WALNUT CREEK BY THE NUMBERS

COMMUNITY PROFILE

Population of Walnut Creek:

70,432

Daytime population:

135,368

SOURCE: ESRI

EDUCATION

Education of residents

73%

Bachelor's/Graduate/
Professional Degree

Education excellence

Walnut Creek schools outperform state averages, with high test scores, top-ranked middle schools, and graduation rates above

90%

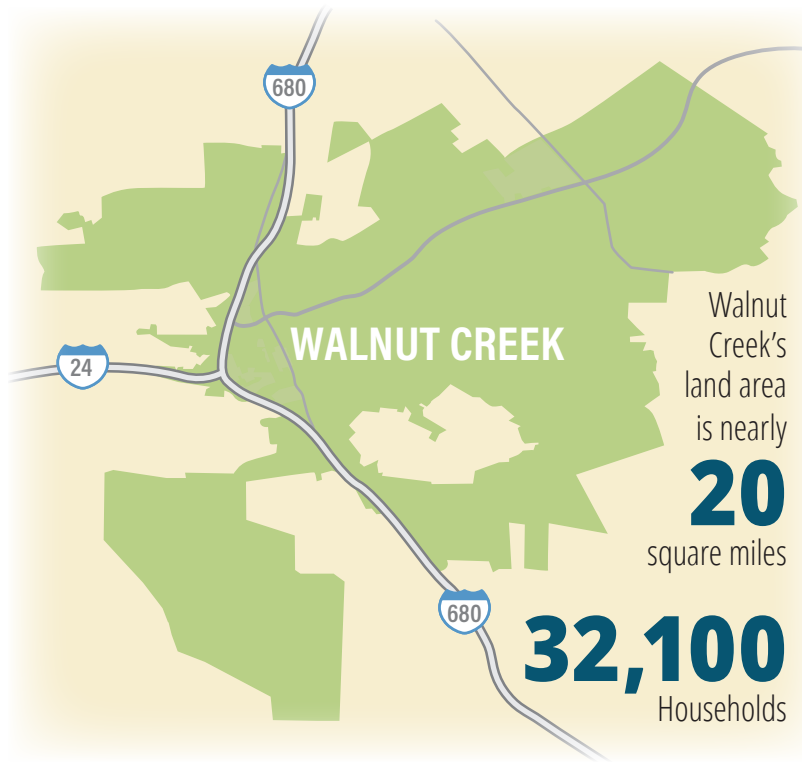

at local high schools.

INCOME

$191,336

Average Household Income

SOURCE: ESRI

COMMUNITY SAFETY

85

Budgeted sworn personnel

95,674

Total calls to dispatch annually

Response times

3 minutes 47 seconds

Priority 1
(highest priority emergency)

4 minutes 57 seconds

Priority 2
(priority call, but not necessarily an emergency)

5 minutes 39 seconds

Priority 3
(all other responses)

WALNUT CREEK BY ETHNICITY

*Hispanic includes respondents of any race. Other categories are non-Hispanic.

SOURCE: <https://censusreporter.org/>, reflecting American Community Survey estimates based on Census data.

WALNUT CREEK BY THE NUMBERS

PARKS, OPEN SPACE & RECREATION

22 City Parks

2,700
acres of open space

320,000

aquatics participants at two facilities:
Larkey and Heather Farm Parks

16 Athletic fields
at Heather Farm Park with 18,000+

hours of annual use

VIBRANT ECONOMY

Walnut Creek Ranks in the Top 3

retail destinations in Northern California,
attracting more than

4.2 million

out of market downtown visitors annually.

Over 120 dining establishments within the downtown core.

SOURCE: WC DOWNTOWN DIRECTORY 2024

20+ Corporate and Technology headquarters

MEDICAL HUB

2 Regional Hospitals, including the County's Trauma Center

2 State of the art
Cancer Centers

Broad network
of specialty clinics
throughout the City

SUSTAINABILITY & CLIMATE ACTION

City facilities operate on 100%

renewable energy.

ARTS AND CULTURE

Leshner Center for the Arts

350,000+
patrons annually

18,000

participants in
Arts + Rec classes

